

Support Children's AIDS Fund International through AmazonSmile Foundation

☒ When you shop at AmazonSmile, 0.5% of the purchase price is donated to Children's AIDS Fund International (CAFI). With the holiday season fast approaching this is a simple way to find that one-of-a-kind gift for someone special and avoid the crowds.

"This is a great and easy way to support HIV impacted children."

Operated by Amazon, Amazon Smile lets customers enjoy the same products, price, and service as Amazon.com. The only difference is that customers shopping on AmazonSmile (smile.amazon.com), can designate 0.5% of the price of eligible purchases to the charitable organizations of their choice.

To browse or shop at AmazonSmile, you must first select a charitable organization. So just type Children's AIDS Fund in the search box and click select. It is that simple.

This is an effective and easy way to support CAFI'S ongoing programs to limit the suffering of HIV impacted children worldwide.
