

National HIV Testing Day – June 27, 2011

Today is National HIV Testing Day. Join us in raising awareness as we highlight the importance of testing in detecting, treating, and preventing human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) infection. This year the federal theme is "Test Your Way,

Do it Today". For additional information visit <https://www.hiv.gov/>